club

Born in a Georgian Manor in London's Mayfair,

Discover The Twenty Two, a members' club designed for the creative and curious, nestled within the historic Margaret Louisa Home in Union Square, New York.

Step into a captivating array of spaces, from intimate dining areas to serene gardens amidst skyscrapers and stars. Crafted to encourage uninhibited exploration, our club invites you to dine in candlelit elegance or sip cocktails alfresco as the mood strikes.

Embrace spontaneity and follow your impulses within our walls, where morning visits seamlessly transition into unforgettable nights. Should your adventures extend past twilight, our bedrooms await.

The Twenty Two beckons you to revel elegantly from dawn till dusk and beyond, becoming a luminous chapter in the mercurial myth that is New York City. Join us and find your place to unwind.

We built you a place to let go.
