Through our doors is where you belong

The Overview

Our manor is like no other with a manner all of its own.

Where Edwardian meets eccentricity and discretion is beyond dispute.

Decadent yet with decorum, we are an eclectic collective turning the every day into an occasion.

Unapologetically idiosyncratic,
designed to inspire,
we are London's west side hideaway.

Come as you are,
where you never have to apologise
for being yourself.

We welcome you to
The Twenty Two.

Patrons are encouraged to use
The Club at
The Twenty Two
as a place of study
as much as a social space

The Living Room

A moment to savour the art of lingering.
Conspire in our creative atmosphere and feel revived by our sanctuary of calm.
Take a pause at any time of day and surrender to the serendipity of life.

The Terrace

Delighting with an alfresco place to drink and dine at the crossing of Grosvenor Square and a glass of wine.

The Music Room

As night descends, horizons widen and life dances to the rhythm of your choosing.
Dressed in maximalist decor that shines and reflects with a light all of its own
—Let us steer you into harmonious revelry.

The Dining Room

Setting the tone for the intriguing where the unforgettable unfolds.
Epicureans come together to make memories that linger far into the future.

The Vault Bar

Beauty in an underground haven as well as a smoking area for those who choose an interlude.

A venue to study
or flex your social voice.

looking for a dash of discretion

The Private Parties

Concocted with attention to detail and tailor-made service.

Unwavering in charm and utterly unique.

Where masterful menus take centre stage.
And inhibitions can be cast adrift in the company of your confidants.

The Bedrooms

Embroidered into every encounter is a kind embrace, a personalised affair.

Thirty-one decadent rooms and suites, each layered with character. Designed to be as individualistic as you.

With a nod to 18th century French decor—handcrafted beds, luxurious linens, rich silks and lavish velvets embellish every room, balanced with the most modern conveniences.
